STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Plaintiff Lewis Stewart alleges that he suffered severe pain and permanent physical injuries to his internal organs because prison doctors did not adequately treat his enlarged prostate. Mr. Stewart asserts that he complained of irregular and painful urination problems. Mr. Stewart further states that he repeatedly asked Defendants for a referral to a urologist, but those referrals were not made. Mr. Stewart claims that the Defendants each acted with deliberate indifference to his serious medical needs despite his deteriorating medical condition. Mr. Stewart alleges that he has suffered irreversible physical injuries to his prostate, bladder, and kidneys. Mr. Stewart seeks monetary damages for his physical and mental pain and suffering. Defendants deny that Mr. Stewart made requests for help or for a referral to a urologist, that he was in a deteriorating medical condition, or that Defendants were deliberately indifferent to his medical needs.
